

What to do when you hear an air raid siren.

Blackouts need to be put up every night before it gets dark!

Blackout

You will need either black felt , black paper or thin wood with black paint.

- You need to put it on your windows.
- you need to stick it down very firmly.
- When you have done that , you have got to make sure you have stuck it down properly, because it might fall down and you might get bombed.
- You are done!

Gas masks
