

All about Viking Swords (2)

This is a typical sword hilt and the different parts are clearly labelled

This picture shows what the tips of Viking swords were usually like

These sword hilts show what Viking swords were usually like.

This sword was found in the River Thames near Reading

All about Viking Swords (1)

We have found many different Viking swords of all different sorts.

This collection of Viking swords was found in Denmark and are in a museum there

This rusty sword hilt was found in Sweden

These Viking swords were found in Norway and are in a museum in Bergen

This sword was found in England near Bedford and is in a Museum there